COLÁISTE AN EACHRÉIDH

CRANNCHUR NA NOLLAG Christmas Raffle

Saoirse (Bliain 1) who sold the winning ticket in this year's raffle is pictured accepting 'FOODS OF ATHENRY' hamper from Cian (4) whose parents Paul and Siobhán kindly donated the prize. Each student was given a card (€2 lines) to sell as part of the Coláiste fundraiser, to date €1150 has been collected. However, some buses did not travel on the 23rd and many students have not yet had the opportunity to return their cards. When all monies are counted Comhar na nDaltaí (Student Council) will help choose a charity to which a donation will be made. Anne Flanagan-Kelly is pictured with more lucky raffle winners, Méabh (2), Róisín (1), Sinéad (1) and Adam (1) all of whom collected one of Anne's Christmas cakes, Anne also donated several Christmas puddings. A special thanks also to Éamon - LONDIS for his generous spot prizes. Buíochas to all who helped.

COLÁISTE AN EACHRÉIDH AG FÁS AGUS AG FORBAIRT - 8 dalta i 2006 -- 98 dalta 2010

Construction work on the latest block of classrooms at the Coláiste, there is also a hall/canteen and locker area for the pupils. There are now 12 classrooms at the Coláiste including a science laboratory, computer room and Home Economics room/Kitchen. Development of a new entrance and car-park is currently ongoing.

COMHAR NA nDALTAÍ / Students' Council 2010

At the beginning of the school year each class elected 2 representatives to Comhar na nDaltaí. Múinteoir Pádraic Ó Baoill facilitates regular meetings in an effort to give the pupils a formal voice in the development of the Coláiste and in the organisation of various events. A no-uniform day in aid of the ISPC, the talent show - 'G-Factor' were among some of the students' work as well as a recommendation to adopt a points' system to acknowledge and promote good use of GAEILGE. It is hoped that a report from Comhar na nDaltaí will feature in all future issues of this newsletter.
