Netbooks – Educational Technology

Our aim at Coláiste an Eachréidh is to provide a high quality education for all our students. Society is becoming increasingly technological and education must prepare learners to be confident and competent users of technology.

At Coláiste an Eachréidh we endeavour to ensure that our students have access to the latest educational technology - each student and teacher has a netbook or laptop for use in their learning and teaching.

There is now a comprehensive suite of digital books available to schools and these are cheaper than print editions and will fall in price as more companies provide digital editions of their books.

Over the past number of years Coláiste an Eachréidh has been developing its ICT infrastructure to provide a platform capable of delivering one-to-one provision and we now have a functioning online 'virtual learning environment'.

Coláiste an Eachréidh

Coláiste an Eachréidh

Bunaíodh Coláiste an Eachréidh i Lúnasa 2006. Is iarbhunscóil lán-Ghaeilge í atá faoi choimirce Coiste Ghairmoideachais Cho. na Gaillimhe.

Múintear gach ábhar trí mheán na Gaeilge agus is í an Ghaeilge teanga chumarsáide an Choláiste.

Suite go lárnach i mBaile Átha an Rí déanann Coláiste an Eachréidh freastal ar cheantar a shíneann ó Thuaim go Béal Átha na Sluaighe, ó oirthear na Cathrach go Baile Locha Riach agus ó dheas go Gort Inse Guaire.

Is dul chun cinn nádúrtha é clárú i gColáiste an Eachréidh dóibh siúd a d'fhreastail ar bhunscóileanna lánGhaeilge. Cuirtear fáilte freisin roimh dhaltaí ó bhunscóileanna eile ach caighdeán shásúil Gaeilge a bheith acu.

'Sé Coláiste an Eachréidh an chéad iarbhunscóil lán Ghaeilge a bunaíodh i gContae na Gaillimhe (lasmuigh den chathair) agus go deimhin i gCúige Chonnachta.

Coláiste an Eachréidh was founded in August 2006. It is an all-Irish post-primary school under the auspices of County Galway Vocational Education Committee.

It is a co-educational, multi-denominational school in which Irish is the language of communication and all subjects are taught through the medium of Irish.

Centrally situated in Athenry, Coláiste an Eachréidh serves a catchment which extends from Tuam to Ballinasloe, Oranmore to Loughrea and south to Gort.

Enrolling in Coláiste an Eachréidh is a natural progression for students who have attended All-Irish primary schools. However, students from all primary schools are welcome subject to having a satisfactory level of Irish. Indeed, a third of all students enrolled in All-Irish post-primary schools had not previously attended All-Irish primary schools.

Coláiste an Eachréidh is the first school of its kind to be established, not only in County Galway (outside Galway city) but in Connacht.

Ráiteas Misin / Mission Statement

I gColáiste an Eachréidh déantar gach dícheall timpeallacht thaitneamhach shlán shábháilte a chur ar fáil ina ndéantar oideachas trí mheán na Gaeilge a sholáthar. Dirítear aird ar fhorbairt acadúil, shóisialta agus chultúrtha na scoláirí le súil lán-chumas a bhaint amach. Aithnítear tréithiúlacht ar leith na scoláirí agus déantar gach iarracht iad a oiliúint le bheith ina saoránaigh measúla, réasúnacha, fiúntacha.

Coláiste an Eachréidh endeavours to create a safe secure environment for staff and students in which education, through the medium of Irish will be provided, focusing on the students' academic social and cultural development. Each students' uniqueness and individuality will be recognised and nurtured so that they may become respectful, balanced and valuable members of society.

Buntáistí a Bhaineann le hOideachas Lán-Ghaeilge Advantages of All-Irish Education

Ireland like many other countries is bilingual and our Irish Language forms the basis of our unique culture. More than half the world's population speaks more than one language. Educationalists believe that a bilingual education can give children positive advantages. It helps develop mental agility and alertness. It provides the individual with two windows through which to look at the world.

1. Teanga dúchais an dalta a bheith ar a thoil aige
Fluency in student's own native language
2. Buntáistí intleachtúla
Cognitive intellectual advantage
3. Foghlaimíonn an dalta an tríú agus an ceathrú teanga go héasca
The student learns a third language with ease
4. Cothaítear féin-mhuinín an dalta
Self-esteem of the student is enhanced
5. Caighdeán ard sna torthaí acadúla
Excellent academic standards
6. Pobal ann féin – spiorad a nascann daltaí na scoile lena chéile agus a thugann féin-mheas don dalta.
Unique community spirit connecting students to one another, developing a sense of self-respect.
